Introducing Our New High Holy Day Prayer Books

Opening a Sanctuary of the Soul

This year, when we welcome the High Holy Days of 5783 together as a Fairmount Temple community, we will also be introducing a new High Holy Day prayer book, Mishkan HaNefesh, which translates to Sanctuary of the Soul. This two-book set reflects many trends in our movement, and in our world, and embraces the rich liturgical voices of our Jewish past and the aspirations of our people today.

The new prayer books are inclusive, progressive and mirror the changes, values, and language of our contemporary world. Like Mishkan T'filah, our Shabbat prayer book, Mishkan HaNefesh opens with the traditional Hebrew prayers, translation and transliteration on one side, while featuring poems, creative readings, study texts and meditations on the other.

Our clergy team and leadership are excited about the potential for innovative, accessible, meaningful, and inclusive worship that our new prayer book provides.

With gratitude to the Edelman/Borstein Prayerbook Fund, among others, we will be providing one set of books to every member family of Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple. Additional prayer book sets for your families can be purchased online at ccarpress.org. If you have not yet picked up your prayer book set, you can learn more about pick-up times at fairmounttemple.org, visit "What's New." Standard editions are $39.10 by using the discount code MHN15 (valid thru October 31, 2022).

Celebrating Cantor Laureate Sarah Sager

Thank you to ALL who supported the June 12 celebration of Cantor Laureate Sarah Sager's 40+ years here at Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple. The wonderful celebration raised funds to establish the Sarah J. Sager Cantorial Chair.

Services are in person and live-streamed. In-person services and events in the MAIN WING (non-school area) of our building allow the option of wearing masks or not. In the interest of community safety, we strongly encourage COVID-19 safety practices and have limited seating capacity to 150 persons in our Mandel Sanctuary with distanced seating available. We continue to carefully monitor the COVID-19 situation in consultation with our medical advisory team. We also allow our members, if they wish, to require masks of those attending their lifecycle events with advanced notice to Fairmount Temple so we can support increased COVID-19 safety.

WELCOMING NEW LEADERS

Michele Krantz, President, Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple

I'm truly honored to be the new President of Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple, our beloved congregation and community. Fairmount Temple is an extremely important part of my life.

I grew up in New York City and moved to Northeast Ohio 30 years ago with my husband Marc (of blessed memory). Marc and I met in law school and he grew up in Shaker Heights. His uncle, Bernard Kaufman, was President of Fairmount Temple 60 years ago. We have three (now adult!) children, all of whom attended religious school here. One of our family's many highlights was going on a Fairmount Temple trip to Israel led by Rabbi Caruso and Cantor Sager.

For the past year, I have been serving as the 1st Vice President under the wonderful leadership of Todd Silverman. His passion, commitment and devotion to Fairmount Temple is inspiring. I can't thank him enough for his temple leadership these past three years!

In addition, I've served on multiple temple committees, including Co-chairing the Cantorial Search Committee, and Co-Chairing the Strategic Planning Committee, among many other efforts.

I look forward to getting to know more of you in the coming months and years and working together to fulfill our mission and continuing to strengthen our great congregation.

Michele Krantz, president@fairmounttemple.org

Julianna Johnston Senturia, Executive Director

Many years ago, I ran into Rabbi Caruso at the JCC. He noticed that I was studying Hebrew flashcards, and we chatted about how much I was enjoying the class I was taking. A few weeks later he called me about an opening for a beginning Hebrew teacher in the Religious School. It seemed like a big leap of faith to say "yes," but I did, and it started a wonderful journey of joyful teaching in our religious school. As I moved on to other professional work including as Executive Director of the Heights Schools Foundation supporting CH-UH public schools and leadership roles on Shaker Heights City Council, I always kept an anchor here at Fairmount Temple through teaching and family milestones.

Taking on my new role as Executive Director feels like coming home. I know I'm not alone in finding meaning and connection here. I can't wait to hear your stories of finding hope and joy, and acting on our shared values. By sharing our experiences, we'll help others find us, and join the Fairmount Temple community.

I'm excited to get started in mid-August. But in the meantime, join me in thanking Lauren Rock, serving as Interim Administrator, and working behind the scenes to help make a smooth transition for all of us. And, please find me on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and LinkedIn – just another way for us to connect!

Main services and some programs will be in-person and live-streamed.

Exploring Our New High Holy Day Prayer Books

As shared on the front page, this fall we are introducing the Reform Movement's machzor (High Holy Day prayer book), Mishkan HaNefesh. Our clergy team is presenting a series of virtual classes to help us become familiar and engaged with this new two-volume set.

Join us on:

Sunday, August 7, 9:30-10:30 am
Rabbi Elle Muhlbaum will explore some of the liturgical and contemporary poetry featured in Mishkan HaNefesh and dive into the beautiful themes of the High Holy Day season.

Sunday, August 21, 9:30-10:30 am
Rabbi Joshua Caruso will revisit many of the tried and true prayers (e.g., Avinu Malkenu and the Shofar Soundings) you will recognize from Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur worship, and see how the new prayer book accentuates and deepens their meaning for our day.

RSVP for Zoom link to Staci Cohen, Scohen@fairmounttemple.org

Can You Help Us Usher?

As the High Holy Days approach, more of our members and guests are returning to in-person Services. We are seeking members who can help welcome worshippers to our synagogue. Can you help?

You can be a teen or retiree, a couple or individual; volunteer once or month, more or less.

If you can help with this important mitzvah, please reach out to Lester Potash at lspotash@icloud.com.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Elle Muhlbaum, Associate Rabbi

We are thrilled to be planning a wonderful year for our learners 18 months through 18 years! Our Early Childhood Center team is so excited for school to begin. It's been a wonderful summer with our camp program. Almost all of our ECC classes for the fall are at maximum capacity (but we have a couple of spots left in the 18 month and Pre-K classes if you want to refer someone to our program). We're also very much looking forward to the launch of another amazing religious school year for our lower and upper school programs! In collaboration with our fabulous educational consultant, Diane Lavin, we've been undergoing an update of our curriculum. We look forward to continuing creating a relational and intentional learning community. We still have a couple of positions on our faculty, so if you or someone you know is interested in teaching on Sunday mornings, please have them contact me at EMuhlbaum@Fairmounttemple.org.

We are excited to see our lower school families for our Back to School celebration on Sunday, August 28!

Staci Cohen, Upper School Director

Hello! We hope you are having a great summer so far. Believe it or not, we are already gearing up for a fantastic school year and can't wait to see you all soon. We have many exciting things coming up this year for our upper school students including two overnight Shabbatonim, L'Taken – a social justice conference in Washington D.C. for our 10-12 graders, our annual NY trip and much, much more! Stay tuned for more information coming soon and please be in touch with any questions.

Elizabeth Kleckner, RS Administrator

Every year it happens. Every year I'm so grateful to get to summer when things slow down. However, at some point during August I really start to miss the students something fierce. Even though the end of August and the beginning of September is my busy time of year – I love the excitement as the school year kicks off! We will continue to keep your children healthy, safe and educated.

Registration is currently open for all of our programming, from our Early Childhood Center to our Religious School, including the free Sunday morning program for Pre-K children! Please let others know about these wonderful learning opportunities for students.

- If you need any assistance with Religious School registration, please contact Elizabeth Kleckner, Ekleckner@fairmounttemple.org.
- If you need any assistance with preschool registration, please contact Jane Mayers at Jmayers@fairmounttemple.org.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Welcome Back Celebration

Lower School (Pre-K through 6th)

Sunday, August 28, from 9:30 – 11:30 am - Join our faculty and staff for a special back-to-school program at Fairmount Temple! More details to follow in our School eblasts and more. If you're not on our email list, please reach out to Elizabeth Kleckner, Ekleckner@fairmounttemple.org to be added.

Covid-19 Booster Clinic

Sunday, August 28

In partnership with JFSA, we are offering a back-to-school Covid-19 booster clinic for all eligible individuals ages 5 and older. Vaccines will be available in the auditorium on Sunday, 8/28 from 11:30 am -1:30 pm. Registrations are required; please visit https://tinyurl.com/acft19 to register.

Special Simchat Shabbat

Saturday, August 27, 11 am

We have a special Simchat Shabbat program coming up for families with children 0-5 years old. Join us at that Alter Playground for a Splashing Shabbat on Saturday, Aug. 27 at 11 am. We'll bring the challah, juice, and popsicles; you bring the sunscreen and towels. Kids can come in bathing suits and we'll splash and play after our Shabbat experience. Let other families with small children know about this fun (and wet!) Shabbat experience. Email Ekleckner@Fairmounttemple.org to RSVP!

Celebrating Cantor Laureate Sarah Sager On her 40+ Years at Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple

On Sunday, June 12, 2022, more than 400 guests gathered at Landerhaven for a long-overdue, and much joyous celebration held in honor of our beloved Cantor Laureate Sarah Sager. Twice postponed due to COVID, we gathered to celebrate Sarah on her 40+ years at Fairmount Temple, all while raising funds to establish the Sarah J. Sager Cantorial Chair.

CARING COMMUNITY

BigHearted Blooms

Wednesday, Aug. 17 10:30 am - 12:30 pm

5122 St. Clair Ave, Cleveland

BigHearted Blooms collects flowers from stores or weddings and repurposes them into beautiful new bouquets. The new arrangements are then delivered to people in hospitals, memory care facilities, cancer support centers, or other places where people facing life's challenges may appreciate the kindness and beauty of flowers.

Community Kitchen

We have missed cooking and baking together to send meals and baked goods to our fellow temple members who are ill or lost a loved one! Please join us. All ages are welcome:

Sunday, August 14, 10 am

We will cook meals and freeze them so they will be ready to send to congregants who are ill, had surgery, or had a baby.

All year round—according to your schedule!

Cooking and baking aren't your thing? The Caring Community always needs people who can deliver meals or cookie trays to temple members who are going through a difficult time. If you can help with this mitzvah, let us know.

Honey Cake Delivery

Sunday, Oct. 2 pick-up times, 12:15-12:45 p.m.

Please help us bring some sweetness to our temple members who lost a loved one during the past year. Our Honey Cake Delivery project lets grieving members know we are still thinking of them long after shiva has ended.

Grief Group Starting in October

Fairmount Temple offers a grief support group, led by Wendy Jacobson, LISW, for our members who have lost a loved one. During six consecutive Wednesdays, October 12 to November 16, group participants will learn about the grief process, develop coping skills, and share support. The time will be determined by the needs of the members.

To volunteer or join for any of these programs or if you have questions, contact Wendy at wjacobson@fairmounttemple.org or 216-447-9542.

Thank you to our members who volunteered at BigHearted Blooms in June. If you'd like to join some of them in August, see article at top of page.

MEN OF FT

The Men of Fairmount Temple will hold their annual members' BBQ at the temple on Tuesday, Aug. 16, 6 pm, rain or shine. The menu will include burgers, hot dogs, and side dishes. Musician Rick Iacoboni will provide live guitar music and magician J.R. Greco will entertain everyone with his with tricks.

There is no charge to attend for Men of FT members and their spouses or significant others. Temple members who aren't members of Men of FT are invited for only $10. Registration required and early registration encouraged.

RSVP deadline is August 11. Register with Barb Smith at Bsmith@fairmounttemple.org.

As we shared previously, Rabbi Nosanchuk is on a three-month sabbatical and will be returning for Rosh Hashanah, Sept. 25-26. During this time, Rabbi Caruso is acting Senior Rabbi, guiding our pastoral, educational, and worship activities together with Rabbi Elle Muhlbaum and Cantor Vladimir Lapin. Rabbi Nosanchuk will rejoin them on Rosh Hashanah evening when we celebrate the new year of 5783.

HELPING GIRLS IN NEED

Support the Girls

Our past collections for I Support the Girls and Share What You Wear (a program of NCJW) were very successful! The menstrual hygiene products we collected were given to women and teens experiencing poverty, house fires, foster care placements, displacement from their home countries, domestic violence, and other forms of need or crisis. When women and girls in these situations are trying to manage trauma, they should not have to worry about where they are going to get pads and tampons. The need for menstrual supplies is even greater now because these products have become very expensive. Please help! In addition to new boxes of tampons, pads, and liners, we are happy to accept open packages. Did you purchase a brand that you didn't like? Donate them! Our collection runs through Sunday, August 14. You can drop off donations in the collection bin in front of temple.

For information, contact Wendy Jacobson at Wjacobson@fairmouttemple.org

WOMEN OF FAIRMOUNT TEMPLE

FALL LUNCHEON AT LANDERHAVEN

Sunday, September 18, 11 am

Enjoy a delicious lunch followed by musical favorites presented by the Opus 216 String Trio. This multi-talented ensemble create niche high-level performances that can cover many genres. The planning committee is finalizing details which you can find on their Facebook page later this month, via their e-newsletter, or by contacting Amy Nadler at aimthepain7@aol.com.

MOVIE DISCUSSION, VIRTUAL

Monday, Aug. 29, 4 pm -- This month the group will be talking about the Oscar-winning documentary, My Octopus Teacher. The movie, which is available on Netflix, follows a filmmaker who forges an unusual friendship with an octopus living in a South African kelp forest.

RSVP to Janice Hirshon at jchirshon@gmail.com for Zoom link.

Art Committee Being Formed

Do you have experience and/or interest in one of the following areas: Judaica, art history, art conservation, curatorial expertise, archiving, and Jewish education? We would love you to bring your gifts to a new initiative! Fairmount Temple is creating an Art Committee to use the Judaica and Jewish art collection of the Temple to engage and educate congregants of all ages and deepen their connection to Judaism and to Fairmount Temple. We are looking for congregants who would like to be engaged members of the committee.

Interested? Contact Linda Sandhaus at lindasandhaus@gmail.com or Ken Litwak at kenlitwak@gmail.com.

STAYING CONNECTED

Our Clergy in Chautauqua this Summer

Rabbi Elle Muhlbaum and Cantor Vladimir Lapin will be leading Shabbat Services and Torah Study at Chautauqua Institution, Aug. 19-20. If you will be at Lake Chautauqua that weekend, contact Rabbi Muhlbaum (Emuhlbaum@fairmounttemple.org) or Cantor Lapin (Vlapin@fairmounttemple.org) to let them know you will be there!

Our Clergy and Staff Are Here for You

You can reach our clergy or staff by email or send a message to mail@fairmounttemple.org and it will be directed to the right person. If you are experiencing a pastoral emergency, call 216-464-1330 and leave a message. Someone will call you back.

Staying Connected

Are you receiving our E-connections? These weekly provide you with updates on worship services and temple programming, links to stories about our temple members, and reminders about upcoming events. If you're not receiving these emails, email Laura Munson at Lmunson@fairmouttemple.org.

Live Streaming Upgrades in Time for High Holy Days

This summer we completed a transition to a new streaming platform, elevating the streaming experience for those watching services from home. The new platform allows us to display varying, focused, and close-up views of our service leaders and participants, and allows for members to engage during the service with a Chat Feature.

While we continue to offer in-person Shabbat Service, we encourage those anticipating streaming some High Holiday offerings to get some practice in now.

WHAT HASN'T CHANGED:

Website live stream: You can continue accessing streamed services via our website, fairmounttemple.org, click on "Live Stream" in upper right corner.
Facebook: Follow us on Facebook and view the live stream there.

WHAT IS NEW:

A unique web link: And easy to remember: fairmounttemple.livecontrol.tv
Roku: A new app was created to host this new site. To download the new app, go to the Roku Home Screen (click home button on remote); open Roku Channel Store; look for Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple; select and download that new channel (it has our new logo). You'll want to delete the previous Roku channel with our old logo. When watching on Roku, click on the "Live" button at top.
YouTube - Search for Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple and select the option with almost 60 subscribers.

Questions? Please contact Laura Munson at Lmunson@fairmounttemple.org or 216-447-9541.
