

MLK Weekend at Fairmount Temple

In the spirit of Dr. Martin Luther King, ALL are invited to a weekend of music, mitzvah, and community to fulfill his words, “We cannot walk alone.”

From the Oprah Winfrey Show to Fairmount Temple!

“Oprah’s personal choice for the next big thing is Joshua Nelson, a young gospel singer she heard while visiting her mother’s church in Milwaukee.”

23737 Fairmount Blvd., Beachwood
216-464-1330
www.fairmounttemple.org

Friday, Jan. 15, 2010

7 p.m. Shabbat Service with JOSHUA NELSON, KOSHER Gospel Singer

Joshua Nelson, an African-American Jew, brings his unique brand of Hebrew-infused gospel music here. You have never heard Adon Olam like this!! Please note the special start time of this service.

Saturday, Jan. 16

7 p.m. CONCERT with Joshua Nelson to Benefit InterAct Cleveland’s Homeless Stand Down

Come hear what all the excitement is about! You will be singing and dancing from your seats!

Concert is open to the community. Admission is a pair of men’s warm winter gloves or a $5 donation which will be used to purchase bus passes. The gloves and bus passes will be distributed at the Homeless Stand Down.

It will be an inspiring and rocking concert for all ages—come clap, sing and celebrate our cultures.

Monday, Jan. 18

MLK COMMUNITY DAY— A Morning of Music, Mitzvah and Art!

8:30 a.m.

Registration opens, light snacks and music from Trinity Cathedral’s Gateway Jazz Band

9 a.m.

Joshua Nelson shares his personal journey through song, appropriate for all ages, but childcare is available during this session

10:15 a.m.

Honor Martin Luther King’s legacy by participating in:

- Mitzvah Project to support Homeless Stand Down
- Gospel Music Workshop
- Creative Art Expression of MLK Themes

Activities for preschoolers will also be available

11:15 a.m. - noon

Gather as a community in song, sharing, and spirit and hear the acclaimed Cleveland BoyChoir

RSVPs are requested for MLK Community Day to Dan Utley at 216-464-1330, ext. 115 or to RSVP@fairmounttemple.org.

Supported by the Marcia Lowenstein Sugerman Mitzvah Fund, Lenore Golden Kessler Endowment Fund, The Inamori International Center for Ethics and Excellence at Case Western Reserve University, in conjunction with Trinity Episcopal Cathedral (Joshua Nelson will be part of their 9 a.m. Jan. 17 Sunday Morning Jazz Service) and Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage (which is offering free admission and afternoon jazz concert on MLK Day)