

Shabbat Across Fairmount Temple

Engage and Celebrate Shabbat in our Community in Meaningful Ways!

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, SHABBAT DINNERS

In place of a typical Friday evening at temple, members of all ages and backgrounds are invited to host or be hosted at special Shabbat dinners in homes.

Want to host? The Shabbat meals you host on Friday, Feb. 22, don't have to be fancy. They can be anything from traditional Shabbat foods or you could host a pot-luck dinner or even take-out food at your table! Each host can decide, and temple will provide you with some of the basics to help you feel more confident as a host. You can host either friends you already have within our synagogue or guests from the community whom we will match with you.

Want to participate as a guest? We want you to feel welcome and to make new connections in the community and all across Fairmount Temple. We will match you up with a host who are looking for guests to enjoy a Shabbat dinner together.

RSVPs requested by Feb. 1 - You can RSVP by completing a form found on our website (www.fairmounttemple.org) under Upcoming Events, sending an email to caringcommunityft@gmail.com or calling Laura Munson at 216-447-9541 and a committee member will reach out to you.

"Together, let's gather on Shabbat at the hearth of Jewish Life." - Rabbi Joshua Caruso, Yom Kippur, 5779

How Else Can I Participate in Shabbat Across Fairmount Temple?

Special Shabbat Series with our Clergy

Exploring the Meaning of Shabbat in Our Lives

Friday, Jan. 25, Shabbat Evening Service, 6:15 p.m.
preceded by a Wine & Welcome Reception at 5:30 pm
At Shabbat Service, Cantor Sager: "Zachor Et Yom Ha-Shabbat: What Does it Mean to Remember the Sabbath?"

Friday, Feb. 1, Shabbat Evening Service, 6:15 p.m.
Saturday, Feb. 2, Shabbat Torah Study, 9:15 a.m.
At Shabbat Service and Shabbat Torah Study, Rabbi Caruso:
"Shabbat and Sh'mita: The Importance of Rest & Renewal for our Land and Ourselves."

Friday, Feb. 8, Kabbalat Shabbat Service, 6:15 p.m.
Saturday, Feb. 9, Shabbat Torah Study, 9:15 a.m.
At Kabbalat Shabbat and Shabbat Torah Study, Rabbi Nosanchuk:
"Shabbat as a Means To Build Community."

Friday, Feb. 15, Shabbat Evening Service, 6:15 p.m.
Saturday, Feb. 16, Shabbat Torah Study, 9:15 a.m.
At Shabbat Service and Shabbat Torah Study, Rabbi-Educator Chernow-Reader: "Shabbat and the Ner Tamid: How The Eternal Light Guides our Leaders."

Challah-Making Workshop

Sunday, Feb. 3, 11 a.m.—noon
Join us for a fun hands-on experience to explore the making of challah for Shabbat and the meaning of such traditions in our homes. RSVP required.

Shabbat Evening Service/Morning Torah Study

Friday, Feb. 22, 5 p.m. (Note: Special Time) - A Fairmount Temple clergy member will lead an early abbreviated Shabbat service. This is the only Shabbat evening service on Feb. 22.
Saturday, Feb. 23, 9:15 a.m. Torah Study - Educator Diane Lavin: "Shabbat and the Golden Calf: Shabbat as a Safeguard Against the Creation of False Gods."

Havdalah

Saturday, Feb. 23, 5:30-7 p.m. - All are welcome to join in a temple-wide Havdalah service, participating in the brief ritual that separates Shabbat from the days of the week. However you participated in Shabbat Across Fairmount Temple, through learning or joining with others for dinners or programs, we invite you to share in refreshments and singing together as a community.

RSVPs are required for the Feb. 3 Challah Workshop and requested for the Shabbat Morning Torah Study series and Havdalah to caringcommunityft@gmail.com or Laura Munson at 216-464-9541.