FAIRMOUNT TEMPLE HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES/PROGRAMMING

IN-PERSON SERVICES: Bring the enclosed card (one per member household) to show ushers at services. For those attending in person, masks are recommended, but not required for those fully vaccinated. We will offer a masked area at each service where everyone in that section agrees to wear a mask for the entire service. We understand each person must assess their own specific risks and make choices that work for themselves and loved ones. If you have been exposed to COVID or are feeling ill, we ask you to choose one of our many live-stream options below:
STREAMING OPTIONS:
Unique web link for Fairmount Temple services: fairmounttemple.livecontrol.tv This is will take you right to the dedicated live-streaming page for Fairmount Temple Services.
Website live stream: Visit fairmounttemple.org, click on "Live Stream" in upper right corner, select either Mandel Sanctuary or Bonda Chapel, depending on service location.
Special web link for both 10:15 am K'hilah Services: For the unique website to stream this service, go to fairmounttemple.org, click on "Upcoming Events/High Holy Days 5783" for the link.
Roku: A new app hosts our upgraded streaming platform. To download, go to the Roku Home Screen (click home button on remote); open Roku Channel Store; look for Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple; select and download that new channel (it has our new logo). When service begins, click on the "Live" button at top.
YouTube - Search for "Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple" and select the option with 60+ subscribers.

Please note, our High Holy Day Services will not be streamed to Facebook.
