

SELICHOT (PENITENTIAL PRAYERS) RITUAL - Saturday, Sept. 9, at 9 pm

Our clergy team and congregants will join our neighbors at The Temple-Tifereth Israel for a lovely dessert reception at 8:30 pm, and Selichot worship at 9 pm. This year's Selichot ritual will be hosted at The Temple-Tifereth Israel (26000 Shaker Blvd., Beachwood) and also live-streamed at tti.org. No admission cards needed.

EREV ROSH HASHANAH AND SHABBAT - Friday, Sept. 15, 7:30 pm

Be inspired by the majestic music and liturgy passed down through the generations that mark this season of reflection, beauty and awe as we gather in what is regarded as one of the world's most beautiful concert halls—Severance Music Center! Home to the Cleveland Orchestra, this year it is home to our Anshe Chesed Fairmount Temple High Holy Day services. Our Erev Rosh Hashanah service will be led by Rabbis Robert Nosanchuk,* Joshua Caruso, Elle Muhlbaum, and Cantor Vladimir Lapin, and will include a musical ensemble led by Music Director Alexandre Marr. In person in Mandel Concert Hall at Severance Music Center and via live stream.

ROSH HASHANAH DAY AND SHABBAT - Saturday, Sept. 16

9:00 am SIMCHAT ROSH HASHANAH SERVICE - For children from 0-5 and their families, this service will include stories and song in an inviting way for families with young children to mark the Jewish New Year together, led by Rabbi Elle Muhlbaum and song-leader Ricky Marcus. Service is followed with snacks for little ones.

In person in Reinberger Chamber Hall at Severance Music Center.

9:00 am ROSH HASHANAH FAMILY SERVICE - A special service created especially for families with school-age children (K-6th) to joyously celebrate the Jewish New Year, hear the sounding of the Shofar, and welcome the New Year. Rabbis Elle Muhlbaum,* Robert Nosanchuk, and Cantor Vladimir Lapin. Service is followed by an oneg.

In person in Mandel Concert Hall at Severance Music Center.

10:30 am ROSH HASHANAH CONGREGATIONAL SERVICE - This service features well-loved traditional and contemporary music and prayer designed to inspire and uplift us together as we signal the new year with the sounding of the shofar. The service will include a musical ensemble led by Music Director Alexandre Marr. Rabbis Joshua Caruso,* Robert Nosanchuk, Elle Muhlbaum and Cantor Vladimir Lapin. Service is followed by an oneg.

In person in Mandel Concert Hall at Severance Music Center and via live stream.

4:00 pm TASHLICH, led by our clergy and ACTY (Anshe Chesed Temple Youth) teens, this traditional gathering at a body of water allows us to symbolically cast off our sins, will be held at Edgewater Beach which has a covered area in case of rain. No admission cards needed.

 Indicates clergy speaking at service*

KEVER AVOT - Sunday, Sept. 17, 11 am

Kever Avot is a ritual to honor and remember our loved ones and visit their graves at Mayfield Cemetery Mausoleum (2749 Mayfield Rd, Cleve. Hts). Cantor Lapin and Rabbi Nosanchuk will lead the service together with clergy of The Temple-Tifereth Israel, our partners in overseeing Mayfield Cemetery. No admission cards needed.

SHABBAT SHUVAH

Friday, Sept. 22 - 6:15 pm SHABBAT SHUVAH SERVICE, the Shabbat Service between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur will be held at Fairmount Temple. In person and live stream from Hilda Bogomolny Faigin Activity Center.

Saturday, Sept. 23 - 9:15 am SHABBAT SHUVAH TORAH STUDY, Zoom. For link, email AdultEd@fairmounttemple.org.

Member passes are needed for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Services being held at Severance Music Center. Specific Details about parking arrangements, live-streaming links, and other details, refer to other sheets within this High Holy Day mailing sent to Fairmount Temple members current with their membership.

KOL NIDRE – Sunday, Sept. 24, 7:30 pm

Be inspired by our traditions on the Day of Atonement as we gather in what is regarded as one of the world's most beautiful concert halls—Severance Music Center! Our Kol Nidre service will include a musical ensemble led by Music Director Alexandre Marr. Rabbis Robert Nosanchuk*, Joshua Caruso, Elle Muhlbaum, and Cantor Vladimir Lapin. In person in Mandel Concert Hall at Severance Music Center and via live stream.

YOM KIPPUR DAY – Monday, Sept. 25

9:00 am SIMCHAT YOM KIPPUR SERVICE - For children from 0-5 and their loved ones, this service is an especially inviting way for families with young children to mark the Day of Atonement together with us. It will be led by Rabbi Elle Muhlbaum and song leader Ricky Marcus. In person in Reinberger Chamber Hall at Severance Music Center.

9:00 am YOM KIPPUR FAMILY SERVICE - A special service created for especially for school-age children (K-6th) and their families to reflect on the Day of Atonement. Joshua Caruso*, Rabbis Robert Nosanchuk and Cantor Vladimir Lapin. In person in Mandel Concert Hall at Severance Music Center.

10:30 am YOM KIPPUR CONGREGATIONAL SERVICE - This service features well-loved traditional and contemporary music and prayer designed to inspire and uplift and will include a musical ensemble led by Music Director Alexandre Marr. Rabbis Elle Muhlbaum,* Joshua Caruso, Robert Nosanchuk, and Cantor Vladimir Lapin. In person in Mandel Concert Hall at Severance Music Center and via live stream.

1:00 pm MUSIC MEDITATION - This annual hour of beautiful music and time for reflection will feature pianist Alexandre Marr, violinist Maude Cloutier, and cellist Brendon Phelps.

In person in Reinberger Chamber Hall at Severance Music Center and via live stream.

2:00 pm MILTON & RUTH STERN AND JAMES A. SAMUELS SOCIAL ACTION LECTURE with Dr. Airica Steed, President and Chief Executive Officer of MetroHealth System. Dr. Steed is a nationally recognized innovator, leader and healthcare expert, and an outspoken champion of eliminating disparities in healthcare. She is the first woman, first black woman, and first nurse to lead one of Cleveland's leading healthcare systems.

In person in Reinberger Chamber Hall at Severance Music Center and via live stream.

3:30 pm AFTERNOON AND YIZKOR MEMORIAL SERVICE

The service will include our entire clergy team in a Yom Kippur afternoon and Yizkor Memorial Worship as we remember our loved ones of blessed memory. Rabbi Nosanchuk will speak.

In person in Reinberger Chamber Hall at Severance Music Center and via live stream.

5:00 pm NE'ILAH SERVICE at the conclusion of the Afternoon/Yizkor Service

Ne'ilah marks the final moments of Yom Kippur. We pray, sing and uplift one another as the Day of Atonement concludes with a final blast of the shofar. There will be sweet treats following the service.

Reinberger Chamber Hall at Severance Music Center in person and via live stream.

Indicates clergy speaking at service*

Erev Sukkot and Shabbat Service, Friday, Sept. 29, 6:15 pm

Join us for Shabbat Sukkot, the most joyous of Jewish holidays as it offers us an opportunity to connect with the natural world and give thanks for the fall harvest. We will celebrate with special music, liturgy and meaningful lessons from our clergy. This will be a fun and engaging evening of learning, prayer, and community gathering. Join us in person in the Hilda Bogomolny Faigin Activity Center, or via our live stream, fairmounttemple.livecontrol.tv or on our Facebook page or YouTube.

Special Sukkot/Shabbat Morning Torah Study, Sept. 30, 9:15 am

Join us via Zoom for Morning Torah Study led by Rabbi Muhlbaum. For link, email AdultEd@fairmounttemple.org

Erev Simchat Torah and Shabbat Service, Friday, Oct. 6, 6:15 pm

Simchat Torah marks both the completion and beginning of the annual reading of the Torah; it is a celebration of endings and beginnings. We will celebrate this tradition with singing, dancing, and much joy! At this highly musical service, we will have an opportunity to hear the last few verses alongside the opening chapter of the Torah chanted! We will also open up the entire Torah sharing the richness of our beautiful tradition with our community. And, stay for a delicious, deluxe oneg following services! Join us in person at Fairmount Temple, or join us via our live stream, fairmounttemple.livecontrol.tv or on our Facebook page or YouTube.

Simchat Torah, Saturday, Oct. 7

9:15 am Yizkor Memorial Service - On this last day of Sukkot, we remember loved ones during this intimate memorial service, a holiday tradition of remembrance. In-person, live stream

Member passes are needed for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Services being held at Severance Music Center.